7:00 pm CHINESE-AMERICAN COMPOSERS

Music is often tied to the circumstances that surround the composer, and this is especially true for Chinese-born American composers today. Many grew up during the tumult of the mid-20th century in China, especially during the Cultural Revolution, experiences that have shaped their music in many ways. Join us as we explore the history of China through the music of Chinese-American composers.

Music of Zhou Long. Recordings feature Geoffrey Simon directing the German Chamber Philharmonic of Bremen (Cala LP).

WHRB warmly thanks all the listeners who have sent contributions. Those contributions, large and small, have made a number of special projects possible, and we could not accomplish the richness of our broadcasts without them.

For those who would like to help in this effort, first you should know that WHRB's staff, management, and trustees are not paid. Every dime goes into our station for equipment, recordings, and more.

Second, every dollar counts -- we appreciate every contribution of whatever size, since they all add up to the kind of programming valued by our listeners. If you would like to contribute, please send a check to WHRB President, 389 Harvard Street, Cambridge, MA 02138. If you do, know that you will be helping to keep WHRB's one of a kind programming coming your way.

Many, many thanks from the staff of WHRB.
